

Celebration of Scottish culture at Annual Robert Burns Dinner Dance – 2/3/24

Scottish cultural event at Robert Burns Dinner Dance: The Rhode Island Highlanders stand ready with drum major in the lead in the hall at Rhodes on the Pawtuxet. The sixtieth annual Robert Burns Dinner Dance celebrates the Scottish poet Robert Burns, writer of the famous Auld Lang Syne. See page 10 for more photos. (Cranston Herald photo by Steve Popiel)

PROUD TARTAN: From left to right, Grace Swinski, Olive Swinski, Zach McMahon, Jane Jellison, Joe Swinski, and Ivy Swinski, one of the evening's toasters. (Photos by Steve Popiel)

MARCH IN TIME: The Rhode Island Highlanders give an exhibition in a cleared out main hall of Rhodes on the Pawtuxet.

PIPE AND DANCE: Piper Jack MacLean performs a marching tune.

BY THE BAR: The crowded front room at Rhodes on the Pawtuxet.